

KIDS STUDYING ABROAD? DON'T LET THEM HAVE ALL THE FUN!

With the tough economic times and few jobs available on the horizon, having your child study abroad in a safe haven like Australia or New Zealand has become increasingly popular. Not only does your child get the amazing opportunity of international travel, he/she gets to enhance their studies with unique educational experiences.

The staff at DUE will handcraft a customized itinerary, offering the family a meaningful experience based on the locales where their child is studying, as well as to other destinations should they wish an extended trip. The team is intimately familiar with the locations they recommend because they personally visit each spot on a regular basis. It allows the students and their families an opportunity to expand their overall knowledge about a country like New Zealand together, and can lead to an unforgettable experience.
